

TRAY INC. JOINS MONUMENTAL SPORTS AS PRINT PARTNER

"I am pleased to have Tray Inc. join the Monumental Sports team as a valued print partner for the Washington Capitals, Wizards and Mystics. Tray has been a terrific company for over 44 years in the D.C metro area. I am looking forward to working very closely with Tray to enhance and deliver our branded messages. Tray will produce all of our Capitals and Wizards game day programs as well as assist us with our everyday needs such as concourse signage, commercial printing and promotional products. We look forward to a long partnership with the Tray team."

- Bob Rossi Director, Corporate Partnerships at Monumental Sports & Entertainment

"We are proud and delighted to be associated with Monumental sports and its tradition of excellence in the DC area," said Brian Burlace President and Chief Executive Officer. "We look forward to using our extensive array of printing resources as we work to support their exceptional brands. We are an ideal match for their many events that demand high quality and quick turn times."

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:
Melissa Mahoney
410.689.0695
mmahoney@trayinc.com

Left to Right: Washington Capitals head coach Barry Trotz, Washington Mystics head coach Mike Thibault, Tray account manager Michael Mollot, Tray CFO John Long and Washington Wizards head coach Randy Wittman.

